

NICOLAUS IN PARIS AND CITY IS GAY

CZAR ARRIVES SAFELY AT THE FRENCH CAPITAL.

Troops Guard Every Point Along the Route—Enormous Crowds Flock to the City to Witness the Approaching Fraternities—Visit Is a Boon to the Tradesmen.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The czar and czarina arrived here safely at Randolph station, from Cherbourg, at 10 o'clock Tuesday. The weather was fine and the countless decorations showed splendidly in the sunlight. Their majesties were accorded a most enthusiastic reception. They reached the Russian embassy, where they will reside during their visit to this city, at 11 o'clock.

A double line of troops held the route from the railroad depot to the embassy from shortly after 7 o'clock, and the soldiers were re-inforced by lines of gendarmes, sergeants-de-ville and detectives, the latter including a number of agents of the Russian secret police and picked men from the nihilist detective corps.

CROWDS FLOCK TO PARIS.

Visit of the Czar a Boon to Tradesmen of the Capital.

Paris, Oct. 7.—During the last two days 95,000 people arrived by the Northern railway, 82,000 by the Western railway, 66,000 by the Orleans line, 47,000 by the Lyons railway and 35,000 by the Eastern line. Thirty-five thousand persons arrived by the Northern line alone Sunday before 11 o'clock, 22,000 by the Western line, 18,000 by the Eastern line, 26,000 by the Orleans line and 27,000 by the Lyons Mediterranean line.

So great was the rush for food at the various restaurants about the railway stations Friday and Saturday that the proprietors were in despair. The price of meat has gone up within the last few days, but this applies only to choice cuts, such as people en fete order for friends. Bread remains at the same price as before, but the consumption has increased.

For the present, commerce is having an enormous impetus. Dealers and business people of all classes are rubbing their hands with delight. Patriotism is a good thing in itself, the merchants say, but when it is coupled with business advantages it is better.

Georgia Votes Today.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—The state campaign in Georgia closed last night with two big rallies in this city, one by the democrats and the other by populists. The result of to-day's balloting is involved in more doubt than has attended previous contests in this state. The democratic managers gave an estimate of 40,000 majority, based on detailed estimates from fifty-nine out of 135 counties.

SILVER MEN OBJECT.

Want "Independent Democratic" Nominations Kept Off the Ticket.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 7.—The objections to the "independent democratic" nominations were filed in the secretary of state's office Tuesday. The ground taken is that the use of the word "democratic" is calculated to mislead voters by its similarity to the name of the regular ticket. The matter will be taken up for consideration on Monday next at 9 o'clock a. m. by the board of review.

Late in the evening C. E. Taubeneck, chairman, and Charles R. Palmer, secretary, of the people's party, filed with the secretary of state a protest against the "middle-of-the-road" populist candidates, claiming that their petition is illegal, not having the required number of signatures; that it is not drawn correctly, and violates law by misrepresentation calculated to mislead voters in the similarity of the name of their ticket.

Operators Still Hold Out.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 7.—The operators' strike is still on, with no appearance of an early settlement. The company has been engaging men in the south, putting them to work, but the strikers have a large campaign fund, and succeeded in nearly all cases in inducing the non-union men to join them. At some towns the sympathy of the people with the strikers is so intense that they have driven the new men away, sometimes using violence. Elevators are filling up with grain, and business is so badly paralyzed that the tie-up cannot last much longer. The trainmen have sent delegates to Montreal to try and effect an amicable arrangement.

May Revive Venezuelan Dispute.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Astonishment is expressed here in official circles at the information received from Demara that the agreement to remain passive in the Venezuelan matter until the pending negotiations between Great Britain and the United States relative to the boundary dispute are completed has been violated. The legislature of British Guiana has authorized the construction of a railroad within the territory which Lord Salisbury has admitted to be in dispute and on the Venezuelan side of the revised Schomburgk lines, to reach some of the richest gold mines in the territory.

This is the second annual meeting, and, as there are about 120 federated clubs in the state, with three delegates each, the convention promises to be one of much importance.

Spain Yields to Uncle Sam.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Official advices which have just come from Madrid to the state department and the Spanish legation fully confirm the announcement made to the effect that the Spanish authorities had decided that the trial of the Competitor prisoners by a summary court-martial was irregular and that Spain had yielded to the demands of the United States for their trial by a civil tribunal.

May Challenge Logan Carlisle.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Rumors are in the air to the effect that Senator Blackburn may challenge Logan Carlisle to fight a duel because of the latter's recently printed card in which he declared it would be more of an honor to hold a joint debate on the financial question with a negro than with Blackburn. So far as can be learned here no challenge has been received.

Abbeville, S. C., Oct. 7.—Willedge Malone, a boy 14 years old, went with a shotgun to a colored woman, Mattie Hellman, who owed him 25 cents, and told her he would shoot her if she did not pay him. She replied she had no money and he would have to shoot. Thereupon he leveled the gun, emptied both barrels into her head, killing her. He is in jail.

DELEGATIONS RESUME VISITS TO CANTON.

Major McKinley Addresses Men From Pennsylvania, New York and Michigan—Union Generals to Tour Illinois—General Harrison at Charleston—General Republican Can News.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 7.—Rain and slush did not keep the big delegations from Canton Tuesday. No more enthusiastic callers have been here than those from Tonawanda and Buffalo and Syracuse, N. Y., and Lenawee county, Michigan. At 10:26 in the morning two coaches filled with McKinley men from East Brady, Clarion county, Pa., arrived. Reaching the McKinley residence, the delegation was introduced by N. E. Graham, and Gov. McKinley responded in part as follows:

"What we want to do, whether we are railroad men or farmers or professional men or mechanics or laboringmen, is to get back to a policy that will give us a chance to increase our manufacturing, improve our home market, extend our foreign market and give employment every day in the year to every workingman who wants work. If we will but follow the lamp of experience and follow in the direction which the light of that lamp leads us, on the 3d day of November we will vote to continue a monetary system built upon a solid basis, which will give us the best money in the world, a money which panics cannot disturb and business failures cannot depreciate."

A delegation of lumbermen from Buffalo and Tonawanda, N. Y., were the next to arrive.

Shortly after 5 o'clock a special train of five coaches arrived bearing the republican club of Syracuse, N. Y. A few minutes after the Syracuse party arrived on a special train of ten coaches, bringing a delegation named in honor of Lenawee, and organized in the vicinity of Adrian, Mich. The party was made up of 90 per cent farmers. At the tabernacle Henry C. Smith made the introductory address and Major McKinley responded.

AS A CHECK FOR BRYAN.

Reed and Harrison Are to Make Speeches in Illinois.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Thomas B. Reed and Benjamin Harrison are to be used as wet blankets for Bryan enthusiasm in Illinois during the last week of the campaign. Mr. Reed has already consented and has notified the republican national committee that he will be in Illinois shortly after Oct. 13. National Committeeman Durbin will go to Indianapolis tomorrow and have a talk with Mr. Harrison, during which the necessity of the case will be presented to the ex-president and an attempt made to secure his consent to take part in the choking of enthusiasm for Bryan.

At the republican state headquarters plans are rapidly being made to diminish the effect of Gov. Altgeld's trip around the triangle by sending out what will be known as the "governors' special train." This train will have on board ex-Gov. Beveridge, ex-Gov. Oglesby, ex-Gov. Cullom, ex-Gov. Fifer, ex-Lieut.-Gov. Hamilton and John R. Tanner, who will be introduced as the next governor. This train will follow on the track of Gov. Altgeld and the distinguished republicans aboard will try to win back the converts that the governor is expected to make.

Gen. Harrison at Charleston.

Charleston, W. Va., Oct. 7.—The republican meeting here Tuesday at the capitol of West Virginia in honor of ex-President Harrison was one of the largest ever known in the state. The excursions included republican clubs from Middleport, Pomeroy and other Ohio points, as well as Ashland, Catlettsburg and other points in Kentucky.

It was shortly after 3 o'clock when ex-President Harrison was introduced by S. C. Burdette. He was received with hearty and prolonged applause.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE IS WELL RECEIVED.

Speeches Made At Many Points On the Trip From Nashville—Governor Altgeld's Tour of Illinois Arranged—Senator Gorman For Bryan—Popocratic News.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 7.—William Jennings Bryan opened a two days' campaign in Indiana by traveling 110 miles and making thirteen speeches. He came up out of the south by night and was met at Louisville at 6 o'clock in the morning by an Indiana reception committee headed by Gov. Matthews, John S. Shanklin, national committeemen, and P. M. Martin, chairman of the state democratic committee. He crossed the Ohio river at 7:30 o'clock and immediately began to talk to the assembled multitude. The reception accorded Mr. Bryan on his arrival in Indianapolis was very cordial. He made five speeches here, two in the afternoon and three at night, and at all the meetings he addressed immense audiences.

Seymour, Ind., Oct. 7.—William Jennings Bryan slept his way through Tennessee and Kentucky and awoke refreshed in Louisville. The nominee left Louisville on the 7:20 train and addressed the first audience of the day at Jeffersonville, twenty minutes later. Mr. Bryan spoke from a platform near the center of the city of New Albany in a natural amphitheater, the people gathering on the hills on each side. There was a good-sized audience to greet him, and his speech was punctuated with applause and cheering.

For the size of the crowd there has been none more enthusiastic than that which greeted Mr. Bryan at Sellersburg. Scottsburg was the next stop, and here a platform had been erected beside the track. There was another large and enthusiastic crowd, and to them Mr. Bryan made a short speech. A stop of a minute was made at Crothersville, just long enough to let the people see the candidate. Mr. Bryan told them that he was glad to see them, but did not have time to make a speech. Seymour was reached soon after 4 o'clock and there was a crowd of several thousand in waiting. Mr. Bryan was drawn to the city park, where he was introduced by ex-Congressman Brown. His speech here was rather lengthy.

At Columbus Mr. Bryan spoke from a stand in the center of a lot covering an area of several blocks. Every inch of this space was occupied and the nominee was given a hearty welcome. At Edinburgh the train stopped but a moment, and in that time Mr. Bryan told the people assembled there that he did not have time to make a speech, but simply asked them to study the question and vote as they saw fit. Franklin was the last stop before Indianapolis, and there an enthusiastic crowd of several thousand wildly cheered Mr. Bryan. From a platform erected near the train he told the people the reasons for the depreciation in the value of the silver bullion in the dollar.

KILLED FOR STEALING RIDES.

New Haven Police Accuse Brakemen of Wholesale Tramp Murders.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 7.—The police here assert that brakemen of the Consolidated railroad have been murdering tramps caught stealing rides on cars of that line. It is said that ten bodies, all mangled by being run over by trains, have been found on the tracks of the Consolidated within the last six months. A man named Molony from Brooklyn was shot twice and thrown from a train by the train hands, but survived his injuries. He has given information to the authorities which has led to the arrest of a brakeman named Bean. The latter, according to the police, confessed that trainmen made it a practice to kill tramps found on their cars.

Majority in Every County.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 7.—Scattering returns from all parts of the state show democratic majorities in every county. No comparison of precincts can be made with 1892, inasmuch as in that year the republicans had no ticket in the field. According to the best estimate, based on extremely meager and incomplete returns, W. D. Bloxham, the democratic candidate for governor, has received about 31,000 votes. E. R. Gunby may emerge from the count with 9,500 to his credit. He is at the head of the republican ticket. W. A. Weeks, the head of the populist ticket, brings up the rear with a probable vote of 4,200.

Latest Connecticut Returns.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 7.—Of the 168 towns in the state, elections were held in 162. Returns have been received from 146 of these towns, those not heard from being isolated and without wire communication, and containing so few voters as to be of inconsiderable importance. Of the 146 towns heard from 133 have elected the republican ticket, which shows a gain of twelve towns over the election of last year. Of the sixteen missing towns, nine are considered as safely republican, with insignificant republican majorities. The republicans claim a majority of 15,000 in the state.

A RINGING SPEECH HEARD AT BELOIT

RICHARD GUENTHER MADE A GREAT HIT.

Address Was One of the Most Effective of the Campaign—Told All About Free Silver Mexico, As He Used to Live in That Country.

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 6.—It has no disparagement to either orator or speakers who have visited Beloit to say that the speech tonight by ex-Congressman Richard Guenther was one of the most effective ever given here. The opera house was crowded to its utmost and for an hour and forty minutes Mr. Guenther discussed the political issues, keeping the audience in a state of suspense and laughter. He gave much attention to the advocacy of the protective tariff policy and threw much light on the silver question.

Long before the hour set for him to begin it was impossible to get even standing room in the large auditorium. He, being a silver mine owner and operator, he discussed the silver question from a practical standpoint, divesting it of all theoretical propositions and fanciful deductions. He laid bare many of the popocratic falsehoods about the beauties of free silver Mexico. Mr. Guenther was consul general to Mexico under President Harrison and is thoroughly posted on all phases of Mexican life.

He delivered eulogies in honor of the distinguished dead who have fallen from the ranks during the last year. The speaker also referred to the aid rendered to the St. Louis cyclone sufferers belonging to the fraternity.

The report of Grand Treasurer Wiley M. Egan was then submitted, and showed that the lodge was in a prosperous condition. Receipts in the general fund during the year amounted to $42,094.75. The charity fund received contributions to the amount of $337, and the total balance on hand aggregates $85,678.92.

Grand Secretary Dill's report included a statement of the dues from lodges, dispensation fees and an itemized account of the charity report. This report was referred to the committee on finance.

The annual election of officers resulted as follows: Grand master—M. W. Owen Scott, Bloomington; deputy grand master—R. W. Edward Cook, Chicago; senior grand warden—R. W. Charles F. Sunday cycling and the bicycle in general were the subject of discussion before the conference. Rev. L. P. Hilliard read the report of the Sabbath observation committee and recommended the adoption of a resolution declaring against the Sunday newspaper and against Sunday bicycle riding, etc. Rev. J. P. Brushingham argued that the many bicycle runs and races were making serious inroads upon church attendance. He drew up another resolution in which base ball was added to cycling as deserving of ministerial condemnation. A report of the Woman's Home missionary society was listened to, and at 10:30 the conference adjourned.

F. M. GOODWIN ON FREE SILVER

Local Railroad Man Gives His Views On The Subject.

EDITOR GAZETTE—The following is my idea of free silver in a nutshell. Suppose I am well-to-do, in comfortable circumstances, and I know of a hard working conscientious poor man, whom I believe to be worthy of a gift. In my desire to be generous I donate him a house built, material and labor furnished.

When house is completed I hand key to the poor man saying, the house is yours, and consider yourself free from debt. Should this poor man have the gall to ask me to guarantee the house to stand cyclones; there being no consideration in the transaction. Even if he did could I do it?

This single truth applies to free coinage of silver. The forty-seven cents that the government now receives for minting silver dollars, would be taken away from Uncle Sam and given to mine owners, there being no consideration in the deal. Could Uncle Sam guarantee the silver dollar to be worth one hundred cents? I answer, no; the value of silver dollars would increase and decrease the same as wheat.

But free silver advocates tell us that the demand for silver dollars will be so great that one hundred cents on the dollar can be relied upon without the guarantee of Uncle Sam. This is a theory and not a fact. As a working man I appeal to all classes of working men not to meddle with theories for one minute, but to consider facts, and on the third day of November, with facts and nothing but facts, in your minds, vote for facts, thus maintaining facts. I submit the above truth to all impartial minds for consideration.

F. M. GOODWIN.

"THE HUB'S" FALL OPENING.

Chicago's Great Clothing Store Makes a Handsome Display for the Annual Event.

A novel effect in exterior decoration is just now attracting a great deal of attention in Chicago. That well and favorably known clothing store, "The Hub," at State and Jackson streets, Chicago, is the originator of this unique display, and the "ninth annual fall opening," the event for which it was prepared. An entire immense business block totally covered with evergreen from the sidewalk line way up to the roof, a solid mountain of deep green foliage, studded with innumerable electric lights, producing an effect that carries one back to memories of World's Fair times, when this enterprising house surprised all America with an electrical display that challenged the admiration of people from all parts of the world. The rapid growth and popularity of "The Hub" is a striking example of Chicago push and enterprise. Unknown and unimportant less than ten years ago, it now enjoys the distinction of being the largest clothing store in the country, if not in the world. The Hub of Chicago, carries the largest assortment of ready made clothing in this part of the country, and the very liberal patronage it enjoys seems to prove that the general public appreciates fully the low prices and upright business methods of this great emporium.

ROSE CROIX WON THE BI-RACE

Trotter That Raced Here Last Night, $25.00 At Lexington, Yesterday.

Rose Croix, the pretty little roan three-year-old trotter that won here last July, captured the $25.00 futurity for colts of that age at Lexington yesterday, turning three heats in 2:14, 2:16 and 2:17. There were eleven starters. Fred S. Moody won the first heat, Rose Croix barely saving her distance owing to a bad break. Rose is owned and driven by M. E. McHenry of Freeport. Her best time here was 2:20 1/2.

Speed and safety are the watchwords of the age. One Minute Cough Cure acts speedily, safely and never fails. Asthma, bronchitis, coughs and colds are cured by it. C. D. Stevens

HELP IS NEEDED AT EVANSVILLE

MANY FIRE LOSERS ARE SUFFERING.

Statement Issued By the Authorities, and Farmers Solicited to Bring in Food—Rally to Be Held At Afton Next Saturday Evening—Other County News.

Evansville, Oct. 7.—The following office has been issued by those in authority.

"After careful investigation it has been ascertained that all the families in the district destroyed by fire last Tuesday night, are left in a very destitute condition. The fire made such rapid progress and in some cases so many families were obliged to use the same stairway, in the attempt to remove their household goods but little could be saved.

"Committees have been appointed to solicit aid; and contributions of money, etc., are being received. It is earnestly desired that the farmers in the adjacent country, lend a helping hand, as well as others. Anything in the line of farm products, that can be used in these families including wood for fuel, will be most thankfully received. Whatever may be brought in, on any Wednesday afternoon, may be taken to the M. E. church, as the Aid society will then be in session, every week. Contributions on all other days, may be left in care of Mr. Barnes, at the residence of George Henry Austin. Money will in no case be refused. Clothing, bedding, dishes, kitchen furniture and all kinds of provisions, will be acceptable. By Order of Committee."

AFTON TO HAVE A BIG RALLY.

John M. Whitehead and W. G. Wheeler Are to Speak.

Afton, Oct. 6.—A grand republican rally has been arranged for next Saturday evening, at Lawton's hall.

John M. Whitehead, Esq., candidate for member of assembly, will deliver the principal speech, but short talks will be forthcoming from the various candidates on the county ticket, all of whom are expected to be present.

The ladies are cordially invited to be present. A very enjoyable party was that given by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bolte, at their pleasant home, last Friday evening. Those who were made merry were: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Blunk, Misses Myrtle M. Eldridge, Hattie L. Servis, Clara Root, Louis A. Waite, Mary E. Scott, Hattie N. Otis, Vienna P. Waite, Jennie Parkhurst, Messrs. Leonard McCrea, U. G. Waite, J. A. Drummond, F. R. Eldredge, William Drummond, W. M. Lawton. The Modern Woodmen of Afton Camp, played the part of host at their regular meeting held last Saturday evening. Visiting neighbors to the number of twenty-eight were present from Janesville and were interested spectators of the adoption ceremony as exemplified by the Afton team of Foresters. At the conclusion of the work refreshments were served and a general good time indulged in by all present. Afton Camp is in a flourishing condition. The school in the Otis district opened for the fall term last Monday with the former teacher, Miss Virginia A. Scott, in command.

EMERALD GROVE NEWS.

Emerald Grove, Oct. 6.—George A. Davis and family returned on Monday from a visit with relatives at Che- mung, Ill. The creamery had a car of coal pulled out to the factory last week. Mr. and Mrs. Philo Kemp spent a few days at Fort Atkinson with friends, last week. Not a campaign orator or any sign of one has been seen in this town this season. Someone had better come out and wake the voters up. A number of threshing outfits have pulled into winter quarters; grain is about all threshed. Do not forget that Gillies & Jones have a good stock of footwear for wet weather. J. R. Lamb of Hickory Grove stock farm won several prizes at the Walworth County fair last week on horses. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christman of Delavan visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fitch. Not as many people from here attended the Walworth County fair this year as last. The Bible school will meet for a social Friday evening, October 16, in the old church. All are invited. Further notice this week.

FAIRFIELD GOSSIP.

Fairfield, Oct. 6.—Rev. B. T. White and family have made many friends during his five years' pastorate at this place, and the best of wishes go with them to their new home. Rev. T. Potter of Allen Grove, supplied the Fairfield pulpit for conference Sunday. Ole Rye has purchased a residence in Whitewater, and expects to move there in the spring. S. Locke has purchased a place in Janesville, and himself and family are now residents of that city. Miss Agnes More is attending the Janesville high school. Miss Fannie Smith has been called to her home in Iowa, by the illness of a sister. Sidney West and family of Nebraska, have moved into one of his brother Edwin's houses at this place. Dr. and Mrs. Horne of Waterloo, recently visited their daughter at this place. Mrs. Ada Wilkins of Walworth of Chicago, is visiting relatives at this place. F. H. Wilkins' horse won first money and B. Coary's second, at the recent races at Delavan. Mr. Heichel and family are moving onto the Woodard farm, formerly worked by Mr. Spencer.

тана last week. Raymond Talbert, of Milton preached at this place last Sunday. Mrs. Ann McCafferty, of Milton Junction visited relatives here last week. PLAN TO LAY MORE MACADAM.

Academy Street, Between Wall and Bluff, to Be Fixed.

Another block of macadamized street is to be laid on Academy street, between Wall and West Bluff street.

Such was the intention from the start, but it was hoped by Aldermen Stearns and Eedles, that by consulting the local officials of the Northwestern road they could be induced to help bear the expense of its construction. The outlook in this direction is not favorable, as the company can see no reason why they should pay.

NEW STREET ROLLER WAS "MIRRED."

Big Machine Got Stuck in the Mud This Morning.

The street roller was securely stuck in the mud this morning and all efforts to move it by its own power proved fruitless. The new stretch on Academy, between Wall and Milwaukee streets, was flooded last evening in order to make its foundation more solid and when Engineer Bennett started the roller this morning it slid into the muddy gutter and there remained. Hoisting jacks were secured and a goodly portion of the morning was occupied in removing the machine.

CARLOAD OF CHINAMEN HERE.

Forty Slant-Eyed Gentlemen Passed Through Janesville Last Night.

When the midnight vestibule train pulled into Janesville last evening, a car filled with Chinamen was attached to the rear of the train. The conductor said that the car contained over forty Celestials who were on their way from Chicago to the Pacific coast, via St. Paul. The Chinamen were about all bare-footed, and seemed to be smoking and having a good time.

MARZLUFF FACTORY TO START UP

Work Will Probably Be Resumed Next Week—Prospects Bright.

Repairs on the Marzluff Shoe factory will be completed in a few days, and the machinery will be set in motion next week. Mr. Marzluff stated this morning that the cutters would be put to work next Monday, and that from the way orders were coming in the prospects were bright.

HOW LONG CAN THE CARS RUN?

Receipts Are Only $19 a Day, Superintendent Cummins Says.

With the street car company taking in an average of $19 a day, Superintendent Cummins would like some one to solve the puzzle as to how long the line can run. He says that business has varied but little during the past two weeks, and that it will average about $19 a day.

GOSSIP FROM SPRING BROOK.

THE Hall Furniture factory has a lot of furniture for repairs.

SINCE the burning of the old Burr Robbins barn tramps are fewer.

R. N. SPICER recently sent a good sized shipment of chickens to Chicago.

BUT few new houses have been erected in the addition this summer.

THE city stone crusher has been at work this week in the Miltmore quarry.

L. J. CRONIN has recently purchased a number of cows to add to his Spring Brook dairy.

W. H. LATHERS has raised over three hundred chickens on his Eastern avenue place this summer.

MINKS and musk rats have of late been feasting off of spring chickens in the different hen houses along the creeks.

AN eight pound pike was captured near the bridge by E. Cone. In order to land the fish Mr. Cone was obliged to row to shore.

OUT of eighty panes of glass in the windows of the street car barn in Spring Brook, but one whole one remains. Small boys did the work with stones.

WE have a very nice line of horse blankets. Lowell Hardware Co.

GOV. CURTIN.

LONG ODDS AGAINST HIM.

Both the common sense and the patriotism of the people are against Bryan, and no man ever won over such odds. Every day new gaps are made in the ranks of his supporters, but not before November 3 will the completeness of the defeat in store for him be realized.

For the first time in our history a political combination is openly and avowedly seeking to delude the people into believing that their money is too valuable, and they would be better off if its purchasing capacity was reduced. For the first time a presidential candidate is telling workmen that their pay buys too much clothing, too many groceries. That of itself is an impossible undertaking
if the people understand what it means, and long before November
they will have found out the trickery
of it.

NO NATIONAL INSULT.

Bryan proved the nature of the
than its defense fairly understood, the first time certain. This is country that a political history of the has preached square combination the government of this nation by has sought to gain popularity and appealing to the meanest and most of human motives. It is the sor-time that any political party has sumed dishonest greed to be the ruin
impulse of the American people.
That such an insult aroused indignation throughout the land, was inevitable. The feeling has grown with each day, and after the third of next month, it will drive Mr. Bryan into an obscurity as deep as it is disgraceful.

What a Cash System Means

We will enter into this system fully determined to carry it out, and by so doing every person who buys shoes of us will be benefited. On and after October 15, when we adopt the cash system, every shoe in the house will be marked down. We will guarantee to save you from 5 to 10 per cent.
Stop and think what that means to you, especially if you are the head of a family and buy from $50 to $100 in shoes a year. We are sure you will be able to realize what a benefit the cash system of shoe buying is, the better you become acquainted with its savings. The merchant who is doing a credit business with a gilded trade cannot afford to sell his goods as cheap
as the concern who sell for cash only,
the reasons why are numerous and can be as plainly seen by you as by us. We can more clearly convince you on the matter after October 15; shoe prices
then will take a drop. A. Richardson

HEIRS AND WIDOW

COULD NOT AGREE

BELOIT WILL CASE BEFORE
JUDGE SALE.

Could Not Settle the Question of How the Estate of J. W. Crisp Should Be Distributed and So Went to Law—
Property Is Worth Between $12,000
and $15,000.

How shall the estate of J. W. Crisp
of Beloit, be "cut up?"
Judge Sale of the county court, is to decide.

Mr. Crisp was a well known Beloit resident, who died about two years ago. He left an estate valued at between $12,000 and $15,000, consisting mostly of property in the city and the town of Beloit. There were other heirs beside the widow, and a disagreement arose as to how the division should be made. No conclusion was arrived at, so the case was "taken into court" and Judge Sale heard the matter today. John C. Rood and Cornelius Buckley are the attorneys in the case.

Amid the sweet strains of Professor

E. H. Pence, of the Presbyterian church, spoke the words this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, that united as husband and wife, Miss Gertrude M. Harper and Richard H. Barlow. The ceremony was performed at the Milwaukee avenue residence of the bride's parents, there being but the relatives and a few invited friends present.
Immediately after the ceremony a wedding feast was served. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B.
Harper, and is a young lady whose lovable disposition and winning ways have made for her friends without number. The groom is the proprietor of a photograph gallery, and is an energetic and successful young business man. During his three years' residence in this city
he has formed many friendships.
Professionally Mr. Barlow stands at the head, and personally he is a universal favorite. That Mr. and Mrs.
Barlow's life may be long and fraught only with joy, is the wish of all who know them.

When they return from their wedding trip—next Saturday—they will at once go to housekeeping in a costly
furnished residence at 253 West Bluff

Cloaks at 25c.

Sale Begins Oct. 6, Tuesday, Lasts 5 Days.

Many women who have children to dress, may be puzzled to know how they are going to get new Cloaks for them this winter. There's Mary, her last winter's Cloak has air holes at the elbows and looks very shabby. And Lizzie's Cloak is much too small for her now. Mother sighs, and thinks about all the things required to take the family through the long winter, thinks about the small allowance they have to live on, and thinks and thinks.

The Scene Brightens...

We are going to have a sale of chesnut Cloaks.
We do not hold these garments up as being the latest styles; we do claim, but you'll discover it quick enough, that they are warm, heavy Cloaks, and will put prices so low that it will pay to buy them to make over. They won't all be made over. Many women will be glad to get them to wear just as they are. We will arrange them on our second floor and have them all marked in plain figures. Some of them were bought in 1893, some in 1894, and many of the best of them in 1895, only last winter.

50 will go at 25c.
75 will go at 50c.
100 will go at $1.00.
90 will go at $2.00.
75 will go at $3.00.
60 will go at $5.00.
40 will go at $8.00.

The announcement that Congressman Cooper is to speak in this city,
and in other places in Rock county will be good news to the voters as he is one of the most pleasing and forceful speakers on the platform.

R. J. Bennett is a Chicago business man, and makes speeches from a business man's standpoint. He is the "credit man" with a big World's Fair
city business firm, and makes a peculiarly interesting address.

F. E. Parsons is a Lake Mills man, and is sent here by the state central committee. He has proved to be an exceptionally strong campaigner and big audiences have been present
wherever he has appeared.

Chairman Vankirk and Secretary
Jackson are hard at work arranging the details for these meetings, and are leaving no stone unturned.

THE noblest Roman of them all.
We are not content in simply living in Rome and doing as the Romans do—we must lead. It is all right for others to have a few leaders and half way bargains among their every day priced merchandise, but that does not satisfy us, especially when it comes to cloaks. Our sale opened yesterday and drew out hundreds of people. Tomorrow will see even a larger attendance as people who bought yesterday and today were so well pleased they will not keep still about it. An almost-too-good-to-be-true interest in the great cloak bargains was the result when women saw the class of garments we were selling. Hundreds of poor people are being benefitted. Sale all the week.

HIS LIFE BLOWN OUT WHILE IN THE CAB

FORMER JANESVILLE MAN
KILLED IN KANSAS.

Engineer George Strunk's Locomotive
Blown Up While Hauling a Santa Fe Train, and He and Six Others
Met Their Death—Mrs. Mark Ripley Notified.

A former Janesville man met a tragic death near Osgo City, Kansas,
last Sunday, he being George Strunk, engineer of the Santa Fe train that was wrecked near that station.

Mr. Strunk at one time made Janesville his home, he being a brother of Daniel Strunk, who died in California last spring. He was one of the oldest engineers on the Santa Fe system and was about to retire when his life was crushed out.
Mrs. Mark Ripley, of this city, was a relative of Mr. Strunk and has received notice of his tragic death.
Seven bodies were recovered from the wreck. The wrecked train was an eastbound passenger No. 2, the same that had a thrilling experience with bandits in New Mexico.

The wreck was caused by the explosion of the boiler of the locomotive. The train had proceeded but two miles beyond Osgo City, about to the Peterson coal chutes, when two terrible explosions were heard, one following close after the other.

The locomotive was completely shattered, and Engineer Strunk and Fireman Hollister, both of Topeka, were instantly killed. The express, baggage and passenger cars came crashing upon the wrecked engine, and the coaches that were ahead were piled up in one heap of wreckage. Those in the rear were all derailed, but the passengers riding in the rear escaped serious injury.

One passenger became insane when the explosion occurred, and shot himself in the presence of the other people in the car.

pathizing friends were present to pay their last respects, and numerous beautiful floral offerings were made.
The pall bearers were F. W. Abendroth, William Heise, Charles Mullerschlager, August Bauman, Herman Mullenschlager and Otto Kiepe.

Mrs. Susan Frost.

After a lingering illness of fifteen months, Mrs. Susan Frost died at 10 o'clock this morning at her home, 207 South Academy street, the cause of her death being dropsy of the heart.
Mrs. Frost has been a resident of this city for the past ten years and came to this country from Devonshire England. Three sons and two daughters are left to mourn, they being Mrs. Charles Schuppel of Bartley, Ill.; Mrs. Charles Hoover of this city; J. W. of Superior; Thomas of Beloit; and William of Trenton, Ia.
Notice of the funeral will be given later.

Funeral of Joseph Baum.

The funeral of Joseph Baum was held from his home, 323 South Main street, yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Wotton, rector of Trinity church, conducted the services, at the conclusion of which the remains were taken to Edgerton for interment. The pall bearers were
J. Doty, F. Lee, M. Buob, S. Phelps,
G. B. Stevens and J. G. Valicau.

most positively refused. We will

WANT THEIR PASTOR TO REMAIN HERE

FIRST M. E. CHURCH MEMBERS ACTIVE.

At a Meeting Held Last Night It Was Decided to Labor With the Bishop, and Notify Rev. Mr.
Thompson Not to Come to Janesville.

Members of the First Methodist church are not pleased with the idea of having Rev. R. K. Manaton, their present pastor, sent to another charge,
and he will not go if his Janesville congregation can keep him here.

A meeting was held last night to discuss the matter, and devise ways and means. All persons present were cautioned to keep the deliberations of the meeting secret and it was agreed to make no statements to the press.

Archie Crawford presided, and Frank J. Barfoot acted as secretary. About one hundred attended the meeting, and after the situation had been canvassed, it was decided to correspond with Bishop Waldran and endeavor to have the appointment changed. It was also decided to telegraph Rev. Mr. Thompson, of Fond du Lac, who was appointed as Mr. Manaton's successor here not to come.

How the matter will terminate, cannot be told, but one thing is certain—Rev. Mr. Manaton will stay here if his congregation can keep him.

It is said that Rev. Manaton withdrew from the Methodist church once,
but later concluded to enter the conference again and he has been preaching under the presiding elder. At the present conference he with three others, including J. J. Lugg, were placed on trial. It will require four years for them to be received into full membership and in the meantime they will have to pass examinations yearly at the conference on certain studies.

Underwear For Cash.

If you will refer to our large ad on page eight this evening you will form an excellent idea of the way the cash system works on prices in a sale of this kind. We have placed men's, women's and children's underwear at figures that are most convincing in their extreme lowness. You will agree with us on this point and undoubtedly will decide to supply the fall and winter necessities for yourself and family
while the extraordinary sale is on.
We intend demonstrating the merits of cash buying, so that every purchaser of dry goods will see the necessity of trading at the place that saves them their hard earned money and gives them more than credit dealers could possibly afford to. Bort, Bailey & Co.

New Slippers.

We received this morning twenty-five dozen pair of ladies' slippers for evening wear, the very latest styles and toes, out, some of them with pretty gold and silver buckles. One style in particular that is pretty and will meet with great favor is an open work top and finished in the highest possible manner. They don't cost so much either, $1.00, $1.25, $2.00 and $2.50,
and you will surely say the prettiest
you ever saw. A. Richardson Shoe Co.

MUST HAVE BANKS OR QUIT BUSINESS

INSTITUTIONS WHICH ARE OF USE TO BUSINESS.

Make Money More Useful—What People
Did Before They Were Established—Enemies of Banks are Enemies of Good Business Principles.

When mankind owns some article which may be disposed of in order to get something of value that may be needed at once, or only at some future date, money is taken in exchange for the article, and money is acceptable to get what man needs in the present or the future. Goods that may spoil with us are given to some other person who can use them and gives money in exchange. Having money we can get what we want at any future time as well as at the present. Money therefore is an article of value. Civilization and custom have established money as the easiest means to dispose of goods we have and get goods we want at any time.

What is money composed of? Gold, silver or paper. Other metals such as copper and nickel are used, but are not a great complement of value.

Our ancestors resorted to very clumsy expedients, to which they were obliged to have recourse. In old times a strong-box and hiding places for more or less large quantities were resorted to, but with great inconvenience, until banks were established. Suppose duty called a person from home; great anxiety was felt lest a robber or a thief should steal away the owner's hoard. Should money be needed at a distance, its transfer was troublesome and dangerous. A strong guard or escort was needed, and often overpowered. The money stored away was no use to the owner whilst stored, nor to anybody else. So also when at a distance a man was obliged to repair to his place of hiding or storage at the risk of his hiding place being discovered—in a word, stored or hidden money was of no use to the world nor to the owner until it was brought into active use. Hence a great volume of money was then needed, for money must be passed from buyer to seller in every instance, so that the difficulties just alluded to have been removed by the much abused system of "banking."

Banking, when introduced in civilization, was a greater result of genius than steam or electricity, and yet those engaged in conducting these institutions are (only by some, 'tis true) held to be odious with terms such as thieves, robbers, sharks, applied to them that create a feeling of dislike and antagonism in the minds of honest people. Banking is to mankind a means by which he can hold his money so cheap as to cost him nothing; so compact as not to take up an inch of space, and so secure as to leave no fear of theft or robbery, and it can be counted up or reckoned in a minute. Amounts large or small can be transferred with scarcely any expense nor risk of loss. The money is always ready for the owner to use, and is at same time helping and at the disposal of the whole community.

If a man of today deposit in gold, or silver, or notes, he can withdraw, if not in the same kind deposited. Yet he receives an equivalent in value, so that the kind is seldom an object, it is the amount or equivalent. If a man wishes to keep his money safe he deposits his money and opens an account with a bank, for which he gets a receipt from one of the clerks. Whenever he needs to pay out he gives a check for amount, thus:

Draw $300.00. He then signs the "drawee," becomes what is called an order for the check. A check is the check when the bank pays receiving signs, the person bank, which the bank across the check. Checks are issued as a receipt, with a counterfoil to patrons which the drawer may cash on amount, to whom passed, or of date, this is an abridgement of a check. You need not accept check as payment of a debt against your will.

The banking system reduces the risk and expense in sending money long distances to foreign countries, etc. Most banks have others in correspondence with them in all the chief cities of the world. I wish to send $100 to Dublin, London or Paris. I get a check from the Chicago bank drawn on the corresponding bank in Europe and send the check by post; it is paid without any risk or special escort to take it safely. The party to whom the check is payable may need only to be identified to prevent fraud. In the same way Europeans can transmit to Chicago, the banks settle their accounts with corresponding banks, and when accounts are balanced at the end of the year. A million may have been transacted back and forward, but the balance between the corresponding banks is very small and easily arranged.

How do banks make their profits? A close mathematical analysis will show that, if a great number of instances are taken, the deviation from the average is always small. Experience convinces people of the truth of this. Apply this to a bank:

One customer may have $2,000 to his credit, sometimes nothing. His average may be set at $1,000. There are a thousand such depositors; the total amount of all their deposits will not differ much from the average deposits of each. Thus a 1,000x$1,000 makes a million, more or less, at the control of the bank of a 1,000 depositors, but this money is invested by the bank and realizes, say 4 or 5 per cent, amounting to $40,000 or $50,000 yearly. Many banks have several thousand customers, and therefore realize so many more times the amount above stated.

The magnitude of this income is added to by the depositors themselves. The wants of business enables a man to have a large amount to his credit; at other times he has to borrow from the bank. A man may not be richer when he has a large deposit, but many have less goods. When he needs a large amount of goods to advantage, he not only draws for the present all his available money, but sees fit to borrow to enable him to purchase the desired goods. This is done by discounting. A wholesale house gives goods for a given time and takes a negotiable note, which he endorses, and the bank allows money for it on a slight reduction, called discount. The wholesale merchant does not need to go around to find private individuals to accommodate him. The bank, the agent of the money entrusted to it by him, and the other depositors, is able more conveniently to accommodate him. These notes are attended to on maturity in the usual way by the acceptor or endorser. Discounting is the safest way, but there is another way, not so safe.

Jones wishes to borrow from Smith, who gives his note, though he receives no goods nor value. There is no real transaction, and such bills are given to men generally speculating beyond their means.

Before the banking system private citizens were liable to great censure for interest on money lent, termed usury—"lend, hoping for nothing thereby." If one neighbor loaned to another the money locked up in his strong box or hiding place, custom held it as deserving of the greatest censure to charge for what was not useful to the owner, called "interest." In the banking business the money of depositors must be daily available, and therefore needed daily by trade, so that the "mutual assistance" between banks and customers removes the allegation of a "dog in the manger" spirit. So Christian communities of every denomination no longer condemn what civilization needs, in the interest of trade and commerce, and the entirely altered circumstances.

But banks are not justified in a careless lending of money that may create a scarcity for ordinary pressing wants, because a degree of caution is necessary so as to avoid danger. Failures are public calamities, and reckless speculation was, and always will be, condemnable, like the private citizen in old times who exacted interest for money he did not need himself.

Bank notes for a large amount are more convenient than coin of any kind. Notes are more portable, and by the banking system equal in value to gold or silver. No man is satisfied to take even a bad 25 cent piece in $100 or $200 or in any amount of money. Yet, were coin only our medium of value, spurious coins would get mixed in and hence more inconvenience. Now $5,000 in gold weighs about 20 pounds—$310 in silver is about the same weight. See the inconvenience of carrying even $100 in silver, weighing between 6 and 7 pounds. If you carry a pound weight in each of your pockets you may soon feel like the man carrying a chicken a few miles: just getting very tired of it. Cease condemning bankers and banking. Faultfinding has become too fashionable. We are daily finding fault with the weather—"Tis too cold!" "Tis too hot!" "Too much rain." "Too much wind, snow, frost, drought." Were we to order weather we could not arrange for it with so much diverse wants, opinions and interests. Christian communities no longer condemn reasonable interest. In banking there is no wrong, but, on the contrary, a great public benefit.

Number of depositors in savings banks, 4,900,000; amount deposited, $2,000,000,000, of which amount $80,000,000 is realized from investments. Bankers do this. Nine million persons hold regular insurance policies amounting to $5,750,000,000, June 1, 1891, gold, $708,000,000; silver, $470,000,000; paper, $435,000,000; total, $1,613,000,000.

The Holders of Mortgages.

The assertion made by Mr. Bryan, that other popocrats that the mortgage in the United States are held by not bonumber of money sharks is last Unlout by the figures of the there were states census. In 1890 amounting total estate mortgages the savings bank $200,000,000. Of these the building associations held $450,000,000, the insurance companies held $572,828,457. The companies held investors represented by number of in-banks and companies was $100,000. That is to say, about one-quarter of held by one-fifth of the population. By whom were the remainder of these mortgages held? Not by the nation's banks, not by the railway companies, not by the great trusts. Some of them were held by mortgage companies representing many individuals, but by far the most of them were in the hands of small investors—men and women who, having saved from $1,000 to $10,000, lent the money on bond and mortgage. In every rural community are thrifty men that lend small sums of money to the farmers in their neighborhood. Mr. Bryan is trying to array these farmers against the men that have lent them money. The fact that a man has money to lend, if it is not more than $100, constitutes him a member of the oppressor class against whom every borrowing populist raises his voice and his vote.—Buffalo Courier.

Jewish Women's National Council.

The convention of the national council of Jewish women to be held in New York from the 15th to the 20th, inclusive, of November, is the first venture of the kind ever undertaken by Jewish women. A very interesting programme for the few days' meeting has been prepared, which will be opened by an address by the president of the council, Mrs. Hannah G. Solomon of Chicago. It will be recalled by those present at Louisville that Mrs. Solomon represented the council at the federation biennial. The president of the New York section will also make an address of welcome, and during the session, besides the reports of the officers of sections and national officers, there will be a number of interesting special papers by well known women. These will be on most practical topics, "Philanthropy," "Charity," "The Training of Children," "The Crowded Districts of Great Cities," and kindred subjects. In this national council there are 39 sections, as they are termed, with others about to enroll themselves, so that by November it is expected there will be over 50 branches.

Stylish Autumn Cloth Frock.

A very smart autumn frock is made of a smooth surfaced cloth that shows a dove gray background with a hair line of dark blue traversing it. The skirt is moderately wide, the upper part being fitted closely to the figure, though the lower has a decided flare. The bodice is a fitted coat having a waistcoat of blue cloth matching the blue stripe set in the front and buttoned down on each side with small silver buttons. The collar is a high, plain one of blue satin, with overlapping points of the blue satin, outlined with a silver cord. The sleeves are moderately full, shaped in to fit the arms and have points of blue satin larger but the same shape as those on the collar, turning back in cuff fashion on the lower part of each sleeve and being fastened in place by a silver button on the extreme of each point. The hat is a soft gray felt, with a band of gray about its crown and a bunch of blue feathers at one side. The gloves are gray undressed kid.—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Case For Consideration.

In Michigan Mrs. Morehouse was lately nominated for state superintendent of public instruction by the Prohibitionists. The attorney general of Michigan has filed an opinion that under the constitution of that state a woman is ineligible to a state office. He is also of opinion that a woman cannot legally hold an office for which she cannot vote.

The point that a woman cannot hold a state office in Michigan may, perhaps, be well taken, as the constitution of Michigan is peculiarly rigid. But the general principle that a woman cannot hold an office for which she cannot vote is wholly untenable. Naturalized citizens vote for president of the United States, yet only a native born citizen can be president. The office of state superintendent of public instruction is at present held by a woman, not only in Wyoming and in Colorado, where women vote, but also in North Dakota, where they do not.

Meanwhile those who say that the lack of suffrage entails no practical grievance on women are invited to consider this case in Michigan. Here is a woman arbitrarily debarred from a position which she is abundantly competent to hold, and which is acceptably held by women in other states, simply because under the constitution of Michigan that position must be held by a voter.—Boston Woman's Journal.

Woman Presidential Elector.

One of the three presidential electors nominated by the recent Wyoming Republican state convention is Mrs. Sarah Malloy of Laramie county. Mrs. Malloy, who has accepted the nomination, is the wife of Larry Malloy, superintendent of the Wyoming division of the Union Pacific railroad. She was born near Columbus, O., and has lived in Wyoming since 1870. She has always been a Republican, and votes in opposition to her husband, who is a Democrat. Mrs. Malloy has served as a delegate at county conventions and is well informed upon the current political questions of the day. To a reporter she said she did not seek political honors, and would not accept the present one against the wishes of her husband or if it duties interfered with those of her home or family. It is, however, she thinks, the duty of women in states where suffrage has been granted them to perform such duties as may be assigned them when they do not conflict with the higher duties of the family and home. Mrs. Malloy has four children, the oldest 18 years of age.—Denver Republican.

For Every Day People.

You may have delayed the purchase of the much needed stove, but surely if you are going to get one this year you want one right away. Let us suggest to you

A Garland,
A Peninsular, or
A Radiant Home.

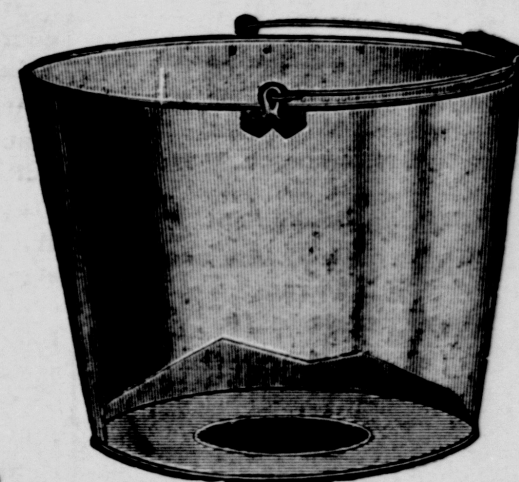

All of them are the best made. More Garlands in use in the city than any other make; they do the work in the cold weather and have points no other stove contains. A business man here in town bought a large size Radiant Home of us the other day and said he wouldn't use any other make when he could buy the Radiant Home---it heated better and burned less fuel than other stoves. 'Tis a fact that all three stoves handled by us are best and most economical.

How about your Furnace?

STORE OPEN EVENINGS.

THE BOLERO.

It Is Sometimes Made of Fur—Notes of Corsets and Gowns.

The sleeve of the fashionable bolero is more simple than those of gowns, and, of course, somewhat larger. In order that the bodice sleeve may conveniently slip inside it. The bolero itself is bordered all around with bands of ostrich feather trimmings, fur and straps of fur, running diagonally, close it in front. There are also a collar of fur, and cuffs and sleeves also, as well as revers. Sometimes the bolero is made entirely of fur.

For indoor wear the bolero may be made of a full chemise or of lace. The effects in embroidery, lace and other details are likewise applied to the bodice, whether they are plain or have a point, basques, postilions.

CREPON COSTUME.

corselet. Beaded fabrics, cut in the proper shape and closely applied, are also very effective.

Corselets of wide ribbon or plaited silk are very much worn. The corselet and bolero are, as a matter of fact, monopolists of popular favor this fall and will probably remain in vogue all winter. They are both usually of a color or material contrasting with that of the body of the gown and afford opportunity for numberless combinations and effects. The two are frequently seen together and companion each other very satisfactorily. Velvet and cloth, which compose many of the new models, are well suited to this style, the gown itself being of cloth and the accessories of velvet of a dark shade or even of a different color. Velvet corselets, however, must be made with skill in order to avoid an appearance of clumsiness, for clumsiness can be better endured anywhere in the costume than about the waist.

A sketch is given of a walking gown of nickel gray crepon. The godet skirt closes at the left side, the edge being ornamented with an application of velvet embroidered with steel. The bodice is close fitting in the back, while in front it forms an open bolero, bordered with velvet and steel embroidery. The full chemise of white lace has a lining of pink silk. The wide belt and the collar are of black velvet fastened with steel buttons. The sleeves are of pink silk, made very tight, and have bracelets of black velvet above the elbow and epaulets of white lace. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FRENCH FASHIONS.

Scotch Plaids in Bright Colors Are Again Popular.

Little French children wear low shoes with spring heels when it is not too cold, but in the winter these shoes are replaced by boots with a low, flat heel, if gaiters are not adapted for out of door use. The gaiter over the low shoe is becoming more and more fashionable for both boys and girls, and it is a sensible style for chilly weather, since a child's legs naturally need more protection in the open air than in the house.

Scotch plaids in bright colors are again seen among the fashionable wool goods of the season and are to be much used for children's costumes.

Narrow ribbon velvet sewed on in flat bands is one form of the prevailing velvet decoration which characterizes the season and is much seen on girls' dresses. Four or five rows are generally applied, forming a finish around the foot of the skirt and a trimming on the bodice. All colors are used, but black velvet ribbon on bright plaid goods is particularly pleasing.

Boys now wear the sailor costume, with long or short trousers, up to 12 years of age.

Felt hats trimmed with immense bows of velvet and ostrich plumes are worn by girls, as are more elaborate hats of velvet, likewise trimmed with ostrich plumes, the bows being of satin. Wide brims and high crowns are mainly seen. Sometimes the brim is caught up with a cluster of ostrich tips; sometimes it is left loose. A brim of dark velvet and a light colored crown combine to rival the partnership of a dark velvet crown and a light brim. The crown is often encircled by ribbons held by little buckles.

The illustration shows a costume of hazel brown wool goods. The godet skirt is adorned with two horizontal bands of tucks. The bodice has a square yoke of embroidery and is laid in large, horizontal plaits. The collar is of moss green velvet, as is the belt, which has long, floating ends at the back. The close sleeves have a plaited drapery at the top and full epaulets. The hat of maroon felt is trimmed with moss green velvet and ostrich plumes. JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE ANUBIS BABOON.

Used to Discover Water in the Dry Seasons.

These chacma baboons and their relations, the anubis baboons, are sometimes used to discover water in dry seasons, which they can do when even the bushmen fail to find it, says the Cornhill Magazine. A single monkey is taken out thirsty and let loose, when it quarters the ground like a pointer, sniffing in all the likely places, until it stops and begins to dig with its hands, and if the sand be dug away water soon oozes into the hollow. This feat, which has been seen both in South Africa and in Angola, on the western coast, is not so wonderful as it seems, because it is only done in the country where the water collects in hollows on a rocky bottom, which is soon blown over and covered by sand. The surface becomes dry and shifting, though lower down the water and sand lie mixed upon the rocky bed. But no other animal seems to have either the scent or the power of using it possessed by the baboon. Even if they could detect the water, the want of hands to scoop away the sand and procure it would make their knowledge as unprofitable as discovering water in a well which had no bucket. An anubis baboon kept in Upper Egypt was used as a house dog, being kept chained at the door. It knew all the usual visitors to the house, but prevented others from entering by walking up and down across the doorway. In medieval times numbers of these animals were brought to Europe and kept as pets and there is hardly a nation of southern and western Europe among whom stories have not survived of their cleverness, sociability and courage. The most familiar to us is the story of the baboon which rescued the child of the Fitzgerald family from the burning castle.

Many critical speakers, clergymen, singers and others, who use the voice excessively, rely upon One Minute Cough Cure to prevent huskiness and laryngitis. Its value as a preventive is only equalled by its power to afford instantaneous relief. C. D. Stevens

Seems as if consumption always picks out the brightest and best. Fully one-sixth of all the deaths that occur in the world are caused by consumption. Many things were once considered impossible. It would be strange if medical science did not make some progress. The telegraph and telephone, the phonograph, the electric light—all were once impossible, and once it was impossible to cure consumption. That was before the time of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Taken according to directions, this standard remedy will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption. Consumption is caused and fostered by impurity in the blood. It is cured by purity and richness of the blood—surely, certainly cured by the "Medical Discovery." It builds up solid healthy flesh and vigorous strength.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book page medical work, profusely illustrated, will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover postage only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Captives to Be Freed.
Rome, Oct. 7.—The pope's envoy to Abyssinia, who was dispatched for the express purpose of securing the liberation of the 2,000 odd Italian prisoners still in the hands of the Negus, has been most graciously received by the latter, and unless King Humbert's government makes some injudicious move, pointing toward a renewal of hostile operations against Abyssinia, there is every reason to believe that the unfortunate captives will soon be restored to freedom.
